

RAYMOND GOINS

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 12, 2010

"A License to Create:
Raymond Goins in the ASA 2010 Decorators' Show House"

Atlanta, GA - Raymond Goins has announced his participation in the 2010 Atlanta Symphony Orchestra decorator's Show House. The ASA annual Decorator's Show House, sponsored by Atlanta Homes and Lifestyles Magazine, is the South's largest residential design showcase and offers a wide array of interior design motifs on display to more than 20,000 visiting public.

Raymond Goins, nationally recognized as Atlanta's premiere artist/designer and dubbed Atlanta's "Furniture Maverick" by Atlanta Homes and Lifestyles, has accepted this year's invitation to participate in the ASA Decorator's Show House.

"It is the ultimate in creative license" says Raymond. "Not only am I able to paint and sculpt, I can consume my audience with a complete environment to tell a story—my story—emphasizing heritage moderne, the union of history and progress through the glory of design." Visitors to the ASA Show House will experience unexpected witticism, eccentricities and romanticism that Raymond composes through his expectations and expressions.

The ASA Decorator's Show House runs April 17 through May 9, 2010.

FOR MORE INFORMATION, PLEASE CONTACT:

R.L Goins Studio
5459 Peachtree Road
Atlanta, GA 30341
678-281-0559

www.raymondgoins.com

RAYMOND GOINS

*"There are no rules. AND if there are, ignore them —
'c'est des conneries!' — on the whole, inconsequential to what is real!"*

—Raymond Goins